

EVOS

EVOLUTIONARY STUDIES PROGRAM
AT BINGHAMTON UNIVERSITY

Spring 2010 EvoS Seminar Series

Evolutionary Studies seminars take place on Mondays at 5:00 PM in Science I 149.

January 25

John Gowdy
Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute
An Evolutionary Perspective on Economics and Economic Policy

February 8

Daniel Lende
University of Notre Dame
Evolution, Behavior, and the Encultured Brain

February 22

William Harcourt-Smith
CUNY Lehman College
Paleoanthropology (TBA)

March 1

Todd Shackelford
Florida Atlantic University
*Sexual Coercion and Forced In-Pair
Copulation as Sperm Competition Tactics in Humans*

March 8

Iain Couzin
Princeton University
Collective Animal Behavior (TBA)

March 15

Bruce Hood
University of Bristol
Supernatural Belief: Me or Memes?

March 22

Melissa Emery Thompson
University of New Mexico
The Hidden Lives of Female Apes

April 12

Nancy Easterlin
University of New Orleans
*Reproductive Choice and Autonomous
Individuality in D. H. Lawrence's The Fox: A
Darwinian Feminist Perspective*

April 19

Stephen Nowicki
Duke University
Birdsong (TBA)

April 22 (Thursday; time & location TBA)

John L. Locke
Yale/CUNY Lehman College
Duels & Duets: Sex, Dominance, and the Evolution of Language

April 26

Peter T. Ellison
Harvard University
Reproductive Ecology and Human Life History Evolution

May 3

Joan Silk
UCLA
The Roots of Altruistic Preferences

More information about each seminar is available at:
<http://evolution.binghamton.edu/evos/seminars/spring-2010/>